
Young Property Lawyers' Forum (YPLF) 2019
University of Glasgow, Scotland
(programme subject to change)

 #YPLF19

Wednesday 5 June 2019

17:30 – 18:15 Tour of Main Building of Glasgow University

Meeting outside Number 5, Professors Square, University Avenue, G12 8QQ.

19:30 Dinner: Five March, 140 Elderslie St, Glasgow, G3 7QF

For those already in Glasgow.

Thursday 6 June 2019

Location: Gannochy Seminar Room, Wolfson Medical School Building, University Avenue, Glasgow, G12 8QQ

9.00 - 9.15 Opening

Session 1 – Objects of Property Rights

Chair: Prof Wian Erlank (North-West University)

9.15 - 9.45 Alexandra Dal Molin (University of Zurich) – Cryptobased Assets: Legal framework de lege lata and de lege ferenda: A comparative legal analysis from a Swiss perspective

9.45 - 10.15 Aleksa Radonjic (Union University in Belgrade) – The Concept of “Thing” in Property Law of Serbia, and Virtual Things

10.15 - 10.45 Viviana Ponce de León Solís (Universidad Austral de Chile) – Property Over Incorporeal Goods: The Cornerstone of the Chilean Neoliberal Constitution

10.45 - 11.15 Nicolas Debruyne (KU Leuven) – Personality features as property

Kindly sponsored by:

11.15 – 11.45 Coffee/Tea

Session 2 – Property Law and Emotions

Chair: Malcolm Combe (University of Aberdeen)

11.45 -12.15 Jonathan Brown (Robert Gordon University) – ‘The Price of Affection’: Pretium Affectionis in Scots Law

12.15 - 12.45 Abigail Jackson (University of East London) – From Pain to Blame: Law, Emotion and Property Law

12.45 - 13.45 Lunch

Session 3 – Property Law and Finance

Chair: Prof Leon Verstappen (University of Groningen)

13.45 – 14.15 Sander Baeyens (KU Leuven) – Cross-border insolvency and rights in rem

14.15 – 14.45 Rosa Amilli Guzmán Pérez (Universidad de Monterrey) – The protection of foreign investors’ property in international arbitration

14.45 – 15.15 Obiora Ezike (University of Glasgow) – Functionalism and the Collateral Directive: ‘Possession’ and/or ‘Control’ as system-neutral concepts?

15.15 – 15.45 Coffee/Tea

Session 4 – Land Transfer Systems

Chair: Dr Frankie McCarthy (University of Glasgow)

15.45 – 16.15 Tiddo Bos (University of Groningen) – We’re not so different, you and I: A comparative perspective on legal instruments that protect vendor and purchaser

16.15 – 16.45 Alexander Appelmans (KU Leuven) – Does the use of blockchain technology affect the conveyance process of real estate, and if so, to which extent is the legal framework adapted to this transformation

16.45 - 17.15 Benjamin Verheye (KU Leuven) – Towards a General International Framework for Land Registration Systems

Kindly sponsored by:

Location: Senate Room, Main Building, University Avenue, G12 8QQ
17.45 – 18.30 YPLF Lecture – Professor Kenneth Reid (University of Edinburgh)

18.30 – 19.00 Reception

19.30 – Dinner: The Bothy, 11 Ruthven Lane, Glasgow, G12 9BG

Friday 7 June 2019

Location: Senate Room, Main Building, University Avenue, G12 8QQ

Session 5 – European Transfer of Moveables

Chair: Prof Bram Akkermans (Maastricht University)

09.00 - 09.30 Carlos de Medeiros Nóbrega (Aarhus University) – The Construction of a European Property Law – lessons from and to Denmark and Portugal related to double sales of movables

09.30 - 10.00 Karoline Rakneberg Haug (University of Amsterdam) – The unitary and the functional approach to transfer of ownership: a comparison of outcomes and legal mentalities

10.00 - 10.30 Coffee/Tea

Session 6 – Sustainability

Chair: Dr Jill Robbie (University of Glasgow)

10.30 – 11.00 Mpho Bapela and Lesetja Monyamane (University of Limpopo) – Who owns the ‘sacred’ waters? An analysis of the mating point of custom and environmental law

11.00 – 11.30 Ulises Carlin de la Fuente (Universidad de Monterrey) – Private-public partnerships projects to rescue cultural heritage

3

Kindly sponsored by:

11.30 – 12.00 Tina Kotzé (Stellenbosch University) – The regulation of agricultural land in South Africa: A comparative analysis

12.00 – 12.30 Siel Demeyere (KU Leuven and Université Lille 2) – A more flexible system of land burdens: from vice to virtue?

12.30 - 13.30 Lunch

Session 7 – Trusts

Chair: Dr Rafael Ibarra Garza (Universidad de Monterrey)

13.30 – 14.00 Katarzyna Królikowska (University of Warsaw) – Transplanting the idea of trust for the management of an enterprise inherited by heirs of a deceased private entrepreneur: close to the original?

14.00 – 14.30 Joe van Anken (University of Groningen) – Debts, Trust and (Dual) Patrimony: What (Dutch) Civil Lawyers can learn from the Scottish conception of Trust

14.30 - 15.00 Coffee/Tea

Session 8 – Property and Justice

Chair: Dr Björn Hoops (University of Groningen)

15.00 – 15.30 Charissa Barden (Stellenbosch University) – Obstacles that affect land expropriation: What is hindering the use of expropriation in South African land redistribution?

15.30 – 16.00 Sameera Mahomed (Stellenbosch University) – Investigating the role of quality participation in achieving spatial justice

16.00 – 16.30 Lerato Rudolph Ngwenyama (Stellenbosch University) – A common standard of habitability? A comparison between tenants, usufructuaries and occupiers in South African Law

16.30 – 16.45 Coffee/Tea

16.45 – 17.15 Samuel De Winter (University of Antwerp) – Compensation for Property Restrictions Imposed in the Public Interest

17.15 – 17.45 Nyaradzo Karubwa (Stellenbosch University) – Impact of expropriation without compensation on South African farm workers

17.45 Closing and announcement of YPLF 2020

19:30 Dinner: Grosvenor Café, 24 Aston Lane, Glasgow G12 8SJ

Saturday 8 June 2019

Optional tour to Glengoyne Distillery and hike up Dumgoyne Hill.

Kindly sponsored by: